JOSEPH JOHN FISCHETTI
TECIP
00:MM

Captioned individual was born in Brooklyn, New York on 5/23/10. He resided at 2315 Magnolia Road, Keystone Point, North Miami, Florida, with his commonlaw wife and her teen-age son by a previous marriage.

JOSEPH FISCHETTI is the younger brother of the late CHARLES FISCHETTI and the late ROCCO FISCHETTI, both of whom were formerly prominent in racket circles in Chicago, Illinois.

JOSEPH FISCHETTI followed his two older brothers to Chicago from New York, in the 1930's. He was reportedly active in bookmaking and gambling activities in Chicago.

FISCHETTI came to the Miami area for permanent residence in the 1950's. He was formerly connected with the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami Beach, as a talent scout. As such, it was his duty to bring name entertainers into the supper club of the hotel. His association with the Fontainebleau ceased in 1962. During the same year, he was associated with the Deauville Hotel, Miami Beach, in a similar capacity. His connection with the latter establishment terminated in 1/63.

His last known legitimate employment was as a solicitor for the American Tallow Corporation in 1965. In this capacity, FISCHETTI endeavored to obtain accounts from restaurants, super markets and similar establishments in order that these places would sell their bones and meat scraps to his employer. This employment has also terminated.

The Fontainebleau Hotel reportedly took in a fabulous amount of money during SINATRA's engagement. Premium prices were in effect. The maitre'd and waiter captain pocketed substantial sums for securing tables for guests.

Captioned informant was contacted on [REDACTED] at which time he furnished the following information:

JOE FISCHETTI was constantly on hand when FRANK SINATRA played his engagement at the Fontainebleau Hotel. FISCHETTI assumed an authoritative manner with everyone with whom he came in contact or who came close to SINATRA. FISCHETTI was also present in SINATRA's room on a continuing basis and answered both the door and the telephone.

SINATRA is due to return to the Fontainebleau for three weeks beginning on 4/7/67. At that time, he will reportedly give one performance per day, five days per week. This engagement will coincide with the time he will be in the Miami area making a movie called "Shamus."

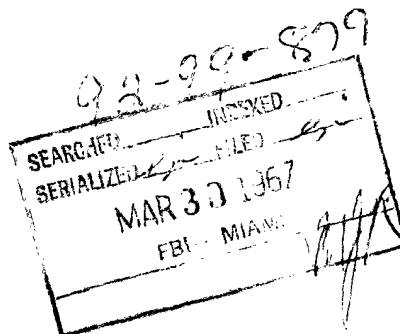

The informant does not know how much FISCHETTI received from the Fontainebleau Hotel in connection with SINATRA's recent engagement. The informant does feel that FISCHETTI's influence may exist with other prominent figures in the entertainment world in addition to SINATRA, although he has no concrete information in this regard.

For record purposes, it is noted informant was contacted on [REDACTED] and was telephonically contacted on [REDACTED]. On none of these occasions did he furnish any significant information. In addition, various unsuccessful efforts were made to contact the informant.
